

DatingFantasy.net - About Us Page

At DatingFantasy.net, we provide members of our exclusive online dating community the opportunity to express themselves through a wide variety of ways — unlike other dating mediums. Members are given access to browse through photos and profiles of potential matches right in your area! What makes DatingFantasy unique, however, is that once you find somebody that you would like to get to know better, you can send that person an invitation to meet you in person at one of our exclusive dating events!

How do you find a great match, though? It's easy with our extensive profile listings and compatibility tests! At DatingFantasy.net, you have the ability to preselect your personal preferences and then have access to matching profiles and photos based on what you are looking for. This enables you the opportunity to weed out those whom you have nothing in common with and get better acquainted with those that you do.

By being a member of DatingFantasy.net, you are also going to be given the opportunity to attend our locally sponsored events — such as meet and greets at sports bars, restaurants, lounges and other date nights! Our 'one-of-a-kind' get-togethers offer you the chance to mix and mingle so that you can get to know someone better, without the awkwardness of meeting for the first time on a blind date. Our members can also partake in annual trips together and cruises to Fantasy Island!

If you are tired of the 'same old' dating scene and are still searching for the perfect partner, you owe it to yourself to join DatingFantasy.net! With three membership levels to choose from, you can choose which degree of online dating works best for you. Don't wait any longer and sign-up today...your soul mate could be waiting inside!
